After carrying out the research and analyzing the data, the reaseacher would like to give the readers and overall view of this research. In addition, the reseacher would like to give some suggestions that hopefully useful, especially for English teacher and for the next reseachers who want to develop this research.

5.1   Conclusion

Based on the result of the study, the hypothesis and the data presented in the result and discussion in chapter IV, it can be concluded as follows:

The result of data analysis is 4.099. This score is higher than the t-table. The t-table for respondents at 0.05 significance level is 0.00 & 0.00. Based on this result and the significance level of the t-test described in the chapter IV before, it shows that the result is significance. It means that there is significant effect of using Course Review Horay method to teach reading comprehension. It is the answer of the first problem.

The students respond based on result of test showed is good enough and they were interested with Course Review Horay method, they also get motivation and more effective in learning Reading comprehension by using Course Review Horay method. It is the answer of the second problem.

In addition, the effect of Course Review Horay method is included physical learning strategy that used for other teacher. This method can be a simple alternative to manage classroom without spending much cost.

5.2. Suggestion

After conducting Course Review Horay as the method to teach reading comprehension, te researcher provides some suggestions. Then the suggestions are given to English teacher, the students, and next researcher.

Especially for teacher at SMP Muhammadiyah 4 Giri and other teacher should increase the frequency of using Course Review Horay Method as a additional method in teaching to avoid monotonous activities in English teaching learning process in the class and to improve the students' reading ability. This method is also an advantage that can improve students' ability especially in reading.

Course Review Horay is one of cooperative learning in which students work together with other friends to comprehend the text. The researcher hopes the use of Course Review Horay Method as the teaching method that can be used to alternate or motivate students in improving their reading ability and can be used to maximize teaching and learning process in the class.

The researcher realized that this study had the weaknessess and far from being perfect. Moreover, it is necessary for another researcher to conduct a next research in order to deepen the treatment and improve reading comprehension ability, beside that the further researcher should do research intensively so that the result can be reliable, valid and accountable. Then the researcher would like to invite another researchers who wont to investigate Course Review Horay method, they can expect to conduct this research with different areas and level.
