CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATION

In this chapter, the writer presented the conclusion and recommendation on the use of comic strip of narrative text as the reading material in this study.

5.1 Conclusion

Developing material is the important way in the process of learning in order to increase student's knowledge and make easy the process of learning. In developing material, the important thing that should be done is mastering well about what kind of material that will be developed, what is the student's expectation in the process of learning. Based on the statement above, there are many things in developing comic strip. In this case, there are variety stories and activities inside the comic strip. For example; at the first page there is opening lesson in order to make students interest, next page is objective learning in order students know about what they will get after study.

The writer also gives questions or brainstorming in order to know student's prior knowledge and their readiness to start the process of learning. Then, stories of legend, love, and fable. After that, there are three activities, those are; vocabularies, students increase their knowledge of vocabularies after read the stories. Next, is essay questions related to the text, students very enthusiastic to do this activity because they can look for the answer related to the text and based on their think critically. The last is game, students more active and enthusiastic to do "True" or "False" game, most of them are active, interest and enjoy in the process of learning.

5.2 Recommendation

From the result above, the writer gave some recommendation to the teacher that this product could be applied not only for X-4 grade students of Senior High School SEMEN Gresik but also to others grade but still in same level because as we know that there are seven grades of the first grade in this school.

The writer also suggested to other researchers to use this product as their reference in developing the material especially in reading skill. Other researcher can develop comic strip in other kinds of text such as descriptive text, recount text, news item text, etc but using application in the process of developing, such as; using Photoshop or other application in the process of drawing also coloring pictures in order better than this product.

Then, this comic strip is useful for students to improve their reading skill, it can motivate students in the process of learning because it has good appearance. Then, the colorful pictures can make students interest. Moreover, the activities in it such as; vocabularies, essay questions, and fun game can make them enjoy in the process of learning.
