

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1 CONCLUSIONS

From the result of description from the role of ECA, researcher can conclude that the role played by the English club activities is very important in improving students' ability of English, it gives benefit to reinforcing learning, to give more practice and motivate the students to learn English, carrying out the objectives in their life. The activities of ECA also help the students improve their ability of understanding grammar and speaking.

It shows that the English club conducted at this school is systematically conducted and it can be concluded that the procedure of conducting English club consists of 3 steps as follow:

1. The planning of conducting an English club consists of the purpose of the English club, the materials/ syllabus used, kinds of activities, the facilities and the sources used for the English club.
2. The implementing of the English club which consists of English club schedule and the method.
3. The evaluating for the English club consists of daily evaluation, weekly evaluation and yearly evaluation.

5.2 SUGGESTIONS

From the result of the study of this research, the suggestions that researcher can give are:

1. Suggestion for the manager of the English club to add the reading and listening skill of English to learn in the English club so that the students will learn all the skill of language

2. Suggestion for the school, it is better to schedule the English club more than two days for learning the regular program, so that the students will always remember about the materials.