

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

5.1 Conclusions

This chapter talked about the conclusion of the previous chapter. The writer concluded the finding based on the research before. While, the suggestion was given to the next researcher related to the students' writing to the tenth grade at SMA Negeri 1 Sidayu.

After the writer conducted the research, the writer concluded related to the research questions in chapter one. For the first research question, the result showed that the students' writing of the content to the tenth grade at SMA Negeri 1 Sidayu is good. Content and idea is good because appropriate with theme, clear and concise.

The second question is about the organization. The organization is good because the articles mostly consist of 3 paragraphs. They are introduction, body and conclusion.

Based on the explanation above, it could be concluded that students' writing to the tenth grade at SMA Negeri 1 Sidayu in descriptive text have been appropriate with theory of writing includes content or idea, and organization.

5.2 Suggestions

Based on the result of the writer give suggestions for the future researchers, it will be better to do different research about students descriptive text writing focused on content and organization with different subject, focus or research design in order to know the new and the different finding of the research.